THE DROUGHT IS BROKEN.

Kansas City Court of Appeals Decides That Cass County Was Made "Dry" Illegally.

The "lid" is to be lifted in Cass county as a result of the decision of the Kansas City Court of Appeals handed down Monday on the legality of the vote taken on local option in that county last year.

The law is annulled for the reason that the vote of the city of Pleasant Hill, was included in the totals of the vote in the county.

The law says that a county local option election shall not include towns of more than 2500 inhabitants. A special election must be held in towns of that size. The census of Pleasant Hill showed a population of 2569 inhabitants.

The decision was on application for writ of mandamus made by J. K. Wirt, a saloon keeper in Harrisonville, and Ned Swartout, a saloon keeper in Pleasant Hill, against the judges of the Cass county court. The Kansas City court of appeals issued the writs commanding the Cass county judges to issue the saloon licenses.

The "drys" were represented by Col. Jas. W. Suddath of this city and Judge C. W. Sloan of Harrisonville. Col. R. T. Bailey was attorney for the "wets." Johnson County Star.

Robert J. Hendrick died Monday morning, March 29, 1909, at 9 o'clock at the home of H. W. Thieman of general disability at an age of about seventy years. He was an invalid for many years and blind during the latter years of his life. Mr. Thieman was his guardian for twenty-seven years after which Mr. Wehmeier was appointed. The deceased had his home with H. W. Thieman's for twenty-eight years where he received the best of care. Mrs. Thieman attending to him as if a member of the family. He leaves no immediate relatives. His father, William Y. Hendrick, died during the civil war and his mother in the seventies. The funeral took place yesterday. Services conducted by Rev. Winkler were held at H. W. Thieman's home and the New Hope church, after which the remains were buried in the New Hope cemetery—Concordian.

Central Downed.

The cadet team of Wentworth took all the wind from Central's sails at the academy ball park Saturday by walking away with a loosely played game to the tune of 14 to 5. For a while the teams tugged evenly, Hurley pitching easily but with much effect, and Stengel, the Central portside heaver going at his heaviest gait even in the early stages of the melee. Wentworth began the work of demolition in the fourth. When they succeeded in getting three men on bases with no one down, the responsibility for bringing them in fell upon Boardman and he acted his part by smashing out one of the cleanest and most timely bingles that ever brought rooters to their feet. The good work continued and the tallies in this inning amounted to 8. The cadets then settled down and, although going easily, played almost errorless ball and the gate was shut. Central's only chance was in the 6th. Hurley retired from the slab and Hillix took his place. He was very wild at first, forcing in five runs by giving free tickets to first. After this inning, however, he pitched a very steady game. Matchett was put for the first time behind the bat and his work was starry all the way. Hurley was the batting kid, smashing out two three baggers and one second stationer. All the rest of played good ball. Three members of the opposing aggregation were familiar figures in Lexington, having been members of the Benton team which was so severely pummeled by the Elks here last summer.

The scores:
K. C. Central 0 0 0 0 5 0 0—5
W. M. A. 0 0 0 0 2 3 3 x—14
Batteries: W. M. A.—Hurley, Hillix and Matchett. Central—Stengel and Welsh. Umpire, Mackie.

Just received a lot of straight ladders from ten to twenty feet, at J. R. Moorehead's.

Engagement Announced.

The following clipping from the Lawson Review of Thursday, April 1, will be of interest to many people Lexington:

Mr. Frank Elledge gave a "Goose Party" at the Lawson Hotel, Saturday night. A large number of ladies were present, no "Ganders" being permitted to attend.

It was very unique party. The rooms were decorated, little geese being very profuse in the decorations. Refreshments were served and the evening was one of enjoyment.

The surprise of the evening was the announcement of the engagement of Miss Vera Dell Hurt, to Dr. C. W. Johnson, of Lexington, the wedding to take place May 12.

The announcement came as a surprise. The guests were all seated in a room in the middle of which was a large goose on her nest, on a table. An egg was taken from under her, for each one present. The egg contained a verse or inscription, which was read by the one whose name appeared on the egg. After all were handed out, the goose was heard to honk which signified that one egg had been left. This was procured, a large golden one. It was broken and the notice of the engagement was found inside.

The party then offered toasts to the bride to be, wishing her a life of happiness, which is also joined by her friends in this city.

Dr. Johnson is one of the most popular young men in Lexington and comes from one of the best families of the county. Miss Hurt is a graduate of Central College and has many friends here. The wedding will be looked forward to with much interest.

No Cheating Here.

With such a fine actor as Eugene Moore, and his excellent supporting company, the production of Edwin Milton Royle's play, "My Boy Jack" at Geyer's Grand Opera House, Friday, April 16, should be an irresistible attraction. Manager Fred G. Conrad need give no further guarantee of the excellence of the play than the fact that it was written by Mr. Royle, the author of the greatest success of recent seasons in New York and elsewhere, "The Squawman," and also "Molly Moonshine," in which that brightest of comedienne's, Marie Cahill, delighted Broadway. These two plays are enough to make the reputation of any author, and "My Boy Jack," is what is expected from such a writer, a beautiful play.

I have added a coloring department to the studio and I am getting out some beautiful effects in water colors along with the photographs. The life like colors are a marvel in photography.
